

Interdisciplinary Graduate Conference in East Central and East European Studies

Biographical Approaches in Historical Research in/on East Central and Eastern Europe

24-25 May 2019

Department of Eastern European History, Spitalgasse 2, Hof 3, 1090 Vienna

Doctoral Program “Austrian Galicia and its Multicultural Heritage”, Spitalgasse
2, Hof 1, 1090 Vienna

Programme

Friday, May 24, 2019

DissertantInnenraum, IOG (2nd floor)

16:00 Opening: Prof. Christoph Augustynowicz (Universität Wien)

16:15 Possibilities and Limitations of Biographical Approaches across (Early-)Modern Societies in East Central Europe

The People of High Society in Eighteenth-Century Paris and Warsaw

Dorota Wiśniewska (Uniwersytet Wrocławski)

How to Deal with “Creative” Writing in Historiographical Research? The Case of Colonel Prince Bermond-Avalov

Thomas Rettig (TU Dresden)

Silent Majority – Possibilities and Limitations of a Biographical Approach in an Early-Modern Polish Peasantry Research

Michał Podsędek (Uniwersytet Wrocławski)

Comment: Prof. Christoph Augustynowicz (Universität Wien)

18:15 Coffee Break

18:45 Oral History and Biographical Approaches

Jewish Experiences in Poland between 1945 and 1968. Based on Oral History Interviews

Marek Szajda (Uniwersytet Wrocławski)

Oral (Hi)stories – Approaching/Understanding Rural Societies through Biographical Interviews: Two Case Studies of the Danube Delta and South-Eastern Poland

Camillo Breiling and Joanna Rozmus (Universität Wien)

Comment: Prof. Dietlind Hüchtker (GWZO Leipzig, MLU Halle-Wittenberg)

20:30 Dinner

Sven's Sohn, Berggasse 28, 1090 Wien

Saturday, May 25, 2019

Besprechungsraum, DK Galizien (1st floor)

09:00 Nation, Nationalist Movements and Intertwined Biographies

Configurations of Collective Biographies of “Voelkish” Protagonists in the Kingdom of Saxony

Sven Brajer (TU Dresden)

Leave or Stay? Comparing Life Paths of Ukrainian Scientists in the

Interwar Period

Jakob Mischke (Universität Wien)

Private Correspondance in Studying Ukrainian Nationalism of the 1930s. New Perspectives in the Light of Senyk's Archive

Magdalena Gibiec (Uniwersytet Wrocławski)

Comment: Junior-Prof. Tim Buchen (TU Dresden)

11:00 Coffee Break

11:30 (Re)constructing German-Jewish Biographies since 1900

Two Jewish Architects in Nazi Germany – Their Networks and Strategies for Survival

Daniel Ljunggren (TU Dresden)

Jewish Agency in Two Dictatorships: The Example of the Jewish Dresden-Based Company-Owner and Engineer Frank W. Kussy (1910-2010)

Steffen Heidrich (TU Dresden)

Comment: Prof. Leszek Ziątkowski (Uniwersytet Wrocławski)

13:00 Coffee Break

13:30 Conclusions

14:30 Lunch

Gasthaus Rebhuhn, Berggasse 24, 1090 Wien