In cooperation with the Key Research Area “Dictatorships – Violence – Genocides”.

This conference aims at analysing the impact of German occupation during World War II on society in Ukraine: how did it change society and societal discourses during the war, and how did it affect the return of Stalinism in 1944, and discourses in Ukraine since the 1950s until today.

https://iog.univie.ac.at/
FRI, 13 MARCH 2020, ALTE KAPELLE, CAMPUS, COURT 1, ENTRANCE 2.8

9:00-9:30 Introduction

Wolfgang Mueller, Dieter Pohl and Mikhail Tyaglyy, Austrian-Ukrainian Commission

Teresa Indjein, Austrian Ministry for Europe, Integration, and Foreign Affairs

The direct impact of occupation 1941–1944

9:30-11:00 1. Occupation and violence

Occupation implications on minorities: The case of Roma

Mikhail Tyaglyy, Holocaust Center Kiyv

The treatment of mentally ill people under German occupation: Nazi crimes and Soviet trials

Gelinada Grinchenko, V. N. Karazin National University, Kharkiv

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-13:00 2. Society under occupation

Germans, Austrians, and occupation society

Dieter Pohl, Alpe Adria University Klagenfurt

Divided society? Society, collaboration and movements of resistance

Mykola Borovyk, Gedenkstätte KZ Sachsenburg and Taras Shevchenko University Kyiv

13:00-14:15 Lunch Break

14:15-15:45 3. Postwar reorientations

Unexpected consequences of the war and occupation: alleged "stiliagi", looting and institutionalization of corruption

Olena Stiazhkina, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kiyv

Victims of Nazi crimes and the Soviet system of repression, of restrictive and prohibited measures

Tetiana Pastushenko, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kiyv

15:45-16:15 Coffee Break

16:15-17:45 4. Occupation memory and society in independent Ukraine

Stages of Holocaust memory since the 1980s

Yaroslav Hrytsak, Ukrainian Catholic University, L’iviv

War and occupation in Ukrainian history policies and societal discourses today

Georgi Kasianov, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kiyv

17:45-18:15 Coffee Break

18:15-19:00 Panel Discussion: What does the German occupation mean for Ukraine today?

Yaroslav Hrytsak, Ukrainian Catholic University, L’iviv

Kerstin Jobst, University of Vienna

Georgi Kasianov, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kiyv

Andri Kudryachenko, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kiyv

Tatiana Zhurzhenko, Institute of Human Sciences, Vienna